07 Cr. 1216 (AJP)

Dear Judge Peck:

This letter is respectfully submitted on behalf of my client Shaniqua Bouldin, to request an adjournment of the sentencing hearing, currently scheduled for April 16, 2008. I have spoken with Antonia M. Apps, Esq. on behalf of the Government, and she consents to this application. We request an adjournment to any date after June 16, 2008, as counsel is commencing a trial before Honorable William H. Pauley, III, on May 5, 2008, which is anticipated to last approximately five weeks.

At present, Mrs. Bouldin has not been interviewed by Probation for the Presentence Report. On one occasion the interview had to be rescheduled because Ms. Bouldin's daughter was hospitalized with pneumonia and tonsillitis. More recently, Ms. Bouldin suffered a death in the family.

On January 16, 2008, Ms. Bouldin entered a guilty plea to a misdemeanor information.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert M. Baum
Associate Attorney
